

A Burton Sweet charity seminar

Golden Horizons? How to be a winning charity

Wednesday 18 April 2012, 9.30am - 4pm

At Bristol Zoo Gardens

Equip your charity for a winning performance, in Olympic year and for the long haul. Exploring innovative funding and trading opportunities, we'll look at:

- Sustained board effectiveness
- Sharing experiences and top tips
- Charities and trading - finding the commercial wood amongst the trees
- Workshops:
 - A Getting the numbers right and choosing financial systems that add value
 - B The governance and legal challenges to meet in social enterprise and trading activities

Price held for 2012!

Just £40 + VAT

Booking details overleaf

Speakers:

Ed Marsh, Partner - Charity Services

Cecile Gillard, Charities Legal Manager with guests

How to book

The event fee is just £40 + VAT
(including lunch*)

Book now to avoid disappointment by contacting

karen.chelton@burton-sweet.co.uk or call us on 0117 914 2057

*Please confirm special dietary requirements
when booking

What previous delegates have said...

“Great venue, well organised, friendly Burton Sweet staff and good food!”

“What fantastic speakers! Good to hear people being realistic and passionate about the charitable sector”

www.burton-sweet.co.uk

Who?

This seminar is for charities and their trustees, key staff and volunteers. Professional advisers working with charities will also benefit from attending.

Where?

Our venue is the elegant Clifton Pavilion, Bristol Zoo, renowned for its excellent food and its lovely views over the zoo gardens.

Bristol Zoo Gardens
Clifton Pavilion
College Road
Clifton
Bristol BS8 3HA

