OUR SERVICE

Burton Sweet is perfectly placed to provide cost and purchase management services across a broad spectrum of business expenditure.

We offer an outsourced service to your management team and take pride in finding the best possible cost and purchase management solutions for you: solutions that are not simply quick, short-term wins, but are both ethical and sustainable.

Many businesses will focus on driving more sales or improving margins on turnover. It is easy to overlook the easy gain in profitability that regular cost reviews can bring and, for clients large or small, our goal remains the same - to see your business costs reduce.

Business Costs Review

Our Business Costs Review is an examination of all your business expenditure. It takes into account both the direct and indirect costs associated with making effective cost management decisions. The two stage process starts with an assessment and analysis of your current business costs, followed by a comprehensive report that identifies savings opportunities. Changes will then be implemented and the entire process managed for you. This service, coupled with a performance-driven contingency fee model, means that the service is totally self-funding.

So how does it work?

Burton Sweet's Business Costs Review service is provided by Auditel – a highly qualified and accomplished firm who share our commitment to providing a quality service through expert understanding of their specialist field.

There are no additional up-front fees, no hidden charges and no extras. Book a Business Costs Review, just to be sure your costs are in check.

Just some of the recent savings which have been obtained for a business (we can look at up to 88 cost categories):
